

OCT International Symposium Okayama

Thursday, November 30, 2017

OCT symposium will take place at Junko Fukutake Hall (J Hall), Okayama University, Japan. Optical coherence tomography (OCT) is an imaging device that can provide cross-sectional images of internal biological structure with no radiation exposure. The symposium features presentations about some of the ongoing and potential joint activities with our international partners.

Speakers

Professor, University of Washington USA

John A Sorensen

Associate Professor, University of Washington USA

Alirza Sadr

Professor, National Center for Geriatrics and Gerontology

Yasunori Sumi

Professor, Tokyo Medical and Dental University

Junji Tagami

Professor, Okayama University

Takuo Kuboki

Junko Fukutake Hall (J Hall)

Organizers

Symposium Chair, Professor, Okayama University

Masahiro Yoshiyama

Preparatory Committee Chair, Okayama University

Yasushi Shimada

Steering Committee Chair, Okayama University

Kei Takahashi

e-mail: shimada.ope@okayama-u.ac.jp

Admission Free !

Okayama Castle